Getting Started with NoodleTools

This quick start will help you get started with using NoodleTools. To begin, you need to register.

Step 1

Go to HTTP://library.devry.edu Select Noodle Tools. Enter your DSI# and the four digit year and two digit YYYYMM month of birth. To register, click the Current users: sign in button.

Step 2

If you have created a personal ID and password, sign in. If you are a new user, select the Create a personal id button:
Step 3

Fill out the user profile page. Make sure to choose a personal ID and password that you will remember. Click the Register button.

Step 4

It is best to set up a list for each assignment. To do so, click the Create a New Project button on the right side of the screen.

Step 5

Choose between APA or MLA styles. You will also be prompted to select a name for the list. Make it specific enough that your assignments are separated for ease of use. Click the Create List button.
Step 6

Select the type of resource heading (periodical, non-periodical, exclusively electronic (NOT databases), audiovisual, legal, or other) you need to cite from the drop down menu. Note: databases are listed under the Periodicals. Click the Create Citation button.

Step 7

In this example, we will fill out the information for a journal article found in one of the library databases so select Journal. A new screen will appear that clarifies the type of source you have selected. Press the Next button.

Step 8

Select the specific subtype of source within the heading. Databases are listed under Online. Click the Next button.
Step 9

Select the specific type of source from the page.

Tell us more about this source

What specifically are you citing?

- A journal article
- An abstract of a journal article
- A review of a book, performance, film, or other published work
- The entire journal (not a specific article)
- An entire special issue
- A photograph of a work of art
- A documentary photograph or illustration

Step 10

There are specific requirements for each type of resource. Just select the options that most closely resemble the type of resource you have. Click the Next button.

Step 11

Fill out the forms by entering information on the pages that appear. Click the Next button after each page. Then, click the Generate citation button to view the citation in the appropriate format.
